“This function was a benchmark for the Australian Open golf. It has put our event on the events map and the overwhelmingly positive feedback from guests on the day was second only to the extensive and positive media coverage we received. . .”

Utzon Room

This stunning venue is the only interior designed by architect Jørn Utzon, the Sydney Opera House's original visionary and architect.

Recently opened as a function space, the Utzon Room is also the only area of The Sydney Opera House left untouched since Utzon's departure from the project in 1966. Utzon's first decorative artwork – a bright, 14-metre wide floor-to-ceiling woollen tapestry – complements the room's natural timbers and finishes and sits opposite the spectacular and rare easterly harbour views.

Offering wonderful acoustics, versatility and an abundance of natural light, the Utzon Room adds cultural gravitas to any event and a unique slice of Sydney.

An experience that is unforgettable...
